Hotline

If you know about waste, fraud, abuse, misconduct, or whistleblower retaliation within the Department of Justice (DOJ), you may report it to the OIG Hotline. Please click the button below to begin the online complaint submission process.

COVID-19 UPDATE: Please note, complaints received by physical mail will experience a processing delay. The online complaint form is the most efficient method for submitting complaints to the DOJ OIG Hotline.

What NOT to Report to the OIG

What to Report TO the OIG

The following matters are generally not investigated by the DOJ OIG:

- 911 emergencies
- EEO complaints
- Misconduct by judges at the federal, state, or local level
- Misconduct by state and local police departments (unless the misconduct concerns DOJ grant funds)
- Misconduct at state and local prisons (unless the complainant involves a U.S. Marshals Service detainee)

You may report waste, fraud, abuse, or misconduct relating to a DOJ employee, program, contract, or grant to the OIG Hotline. The OIG accepts complaints related to the following DOJ components:

- Federal Bureau of Investigation
- Drug Enforcement Administration
- Federal Bureau of Prisons
- U.S. Marshals Service
- Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives
- United States Attorneys' Offices
- Other DOJ Offices, Bureaus, or Divisions

The DOJ OIG also has jurisdiction to investigate allegations of whistleblower retaliation involving:

- Employees of the Federal Bureau of Investigation
- Employees of DOJ contractors, subcontractors, grantees, and subgrantees
- DOJ employees who believe their security clearance or access to classified information has been taken in retaliation for whistleblowing

Grant Complaint

This form should only be used to submit complaints related to Department of Justice (DOJ) Grants. For complaints that do not involve DOJ grants, click here.

Please Note: The online complaint form is the most efficient method for submitting complaints to the DOJ OIG Hotline.

If you would like to submit supporting documentation, please mail in your complaint with the supporting documentation to the address listed below, instead of using our online form.

Pursuant to 2 C.F.R. § 200.113, grantees, subgrantees, and grant applicants must disclose violations of federal criminal law involving fraud, bribery, or gratuity violations potentially affecting a grant to the federal awarding agency. While disclosures of such criminal violations to the OIG are voluntary, failure to provide the OIG with all of the information needed to investigate could result in an incomplete investigation.
